CHAIRMAN GONZALO'S SPEECH!
34TH ANNIVERSARY

Comrades of the Communist Party of Peru!

Combatants of the People's Guerrilla Army!

Peruvian people!:

We are living through historic moments; each one of us knows this is the case. Let us not fool ourselves. In these moments, we must put all forces in tension to confront difficulties and continue accomplishing our tasks—and conquer the goals! The successes! The victory! This must be done.

We are here as children of the people; we are combating in these trenches, which are also trenches of combat, and we do this because we are communists! Because we defend here the interests of the people, the principles of the Party, and the People's War. That is what we do; we are doing it, and we will continue doing it!

We are here in these circumstances. Some think that this is a great defeat. They are dreaming! We tell them to keep dreaming. It is simply a bend, nothing more! A bend in the road! The road is long, and with it we shall arrive. And, we shall triumph! You shall see it! You shall see it!

We must continue with the tasks established by the Third Plenum of the Central Committee. A glorious Plenum! Let it be known that these agreements are already in motion, and this will continue. We will continue to apply the Fourth Plan of Strategic Development of the People's War to Conquer Power; we will continue to develop the Sixth Military Plan to Construct the Conquest of Power. This will continue.

That is the task! That we will do, because of what we are! And because of the obligation we have to the proletariat and the people!

We clearly state that today the democratic road has begun to unfold as a road of liberation, as a people's road of liberation! This is the circumstance in which we're unfolding. We must think with much historical sense; let us stop continuing to close our eyes. Let us look at reality, let us look at the history of Peru. Let us look at the last three centuries of Peru. We must think about that. Look at the eighteenth century, look at the nineteenth century, look at the twentieth century—and understand them! Those who do not understand will be blind, and the blind do not serve the country, they do not serve Peru!

We think that the eighteenth century was a very clear lesson. Let this be thought about. There was one dominator. It was Spain, and where did that bloodsucking domination bring us? To a very deep crisis, and as a result Peru was divided. From there comes the beginning of present-day Bolivia. This is not our question; these are facts.

Then, in the last century: English domination. Where did their contention with France lead us? To another great Crisis: The seventies of the last century; the result? War with Chile. We must not forget this! What happened? We lost territory. In spite of the blood spilled by the heroes and the people, our homeland suffers a schism. A lesson must be drawn!

The twentieth century. How are we doing? In the twentieth century there is an imperialism that dominates us, mainly American imperialism. This is real and everyone knows it. And where has this brought us? Without even recalling those years of the twenties, here and now, to the worst crisis in the entire history of the Peruvian people. Drawing a lesson from the past centuries, what can be thought? Once again the nation is at risk, once again the Republic is at risk, once again the territory is at risk; it can easily be lost, and because of interests. This is the situation. They brought us up to this point. But we have a fact, a Peruvian revolution, a people's war; it continues and they will continue to advance. Where have we arrived with that? To a Strategic Equilibrium. And this we must understand well. It is Strategic Equilibrium! Which is concretized in an essential situation. What have twelve years served for? To show plainly before the world and mainly before the Peruvian people, that the Peruvian State is a paper tiger. It is rotten to the core. This has been demonstrated!

With this being the case, let us think about the danger that the nation, the country, may be divided. The nation is at risk. They want to tear it apart, they want to divide it. Who wants to do this? As always, imperialism, those who exploit, those who rule. What must we do? What corresponds now? What corresponds is that we strengthen the People's Liberation Movement and we will develop it—handled in people's war—because the people, always the people, have been the ones who have defended the homeland, who have defended the nation. It corresponds to form the People's Liberation Front. It corresponds to form and develop, beginning from the People's Guerrilla Army, a People's Liberation Army. That is what corresponds! And that is what we will do! And this is what we are doing and that is what we are going to do! You gentlemen shall be the witnesses.

Finally, now let us listen to this. As we see in the world, Maoism marches uncontainably to command the new wave of the world proletarian revolution. Understand well and comprehend. Those who have ears, use them. Those who have understanding—and we all have it—use it. Enough nonsense! Enough darkness! Let us understand that! What is unfolding in the world? What do we need? We need Maoism to be embodied—and it is doing so—and for it to go on generating Communist Parties, to handle, to lead, that new great wave of the world proletarian revolution that is coming upon us.

What has become of everything they told us, the empty and foolish chatter of the famous "new stage of peace"? What about Yugoslavia? What about other places? Everything became politicized; that is a lie. Today there is one reality: the same contenders of the First and Second World Wars are generating, are preparing the new Third world war. We need to know this and we, as the children of an oppressed country, are part of the booty. We cannot consent to this! Enough imperialist exploitation! We must do away with them! We are from the third world and the third world is the base of the world proletarian revolution, with one condition, that the Communist Parties uphold and lead! That is what must be done!

We think the following: Next year will be the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Chairman Mao. We must celebrate these one hundred years! We are organizing it with the Communist Parties. We want a new manner, a celebration which will be the conscious comprehension of the importance of Chairman Mao in the world revolution, and we shall begin the celebration this year and we shall finish it next year. It will be a grand process of celebration. I want to take this opportunity here to salute the international proletariat, the oppressed nations of the world, and the Revolutionary Internationalist Movement.

LONG LIVE THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF PERU!

THE PEOPLE'S WAR WILL INEVITABLY WIN!

WE SALUTE FROM HERE THE FUTURE BIRTH OF THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF PERU!

We say: GLORY TO MARXISM-LENINISM-MAOISM!!

And finally we say, HONOR AND GLORY TO THE PERUVIAN PEOPLE!!
